

Position Statement on Degree-Granting Credit for ESL Courses

TESOL advocates that degree-granting credit be awarded to ESOL students for successful completion of coursework in English as a second or foreign language in institutions of higher education.

*Approved by the Board of Directors
June 2000*