

Spanish Civil War

Sarah: Hi Kate. Have you finished your research?

Kate: Not yet. I'm still working on it. It's about Spanish Civil War. I've read many books on it, but I'm not ready to start writing it.

Sarah: What have you found so far? Anything interesting?

Kate: Well, the war started in 1936 and ended just before the World War 2. The war was between Republicans and the Nationalists and it looks like a rehearsal of the World War 2. There are so many interesting things in it. I want to read more about it.

Sarah: I did a research on World War 2. It was really exhausting. There were so many things to read. I went to National Library in the city center just for that research.

Kate: You gave your research last term, right?

Sarah: Yes, I did. You look so pale. Didn't you sleep last night again?

Kate: No, I spent the whole night to work on my research. I've stayed awake many nights in the past. It's not a big deal!

Sarah: Oh, poor you. Let's go and drink some coffee then.

Kate: Good idea.

Are the statements true or false according to the text?

1. Kate wrote a research on Spanish Civil War.
2. Kate is very tired now.
3. Sarah has seen National Library before.
4. Spanish Civil war has attracted Kate's attention.
5. It's the first time that Kate has stayed up all night.

©2014 esl photocopyables

All rights reserved by Volkan TIRPANCI

Free for classroom use only

Not for commercial use

Spanish Civil war poster photo:  Some rights reserved by Kent Wang

Spanish Civil War reading text is taken from englishschooling website's archive.

For more lesson plans please visit my store @

<http://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Esl-Photocopyables>

For new lesson ideas please follow me via Daphne's blog @

<http://www.photocopyables.com/blogs/daphne>

Please follow me online @

